Food for Fines

Food for Fines is the annual program where library members are given the option to clear their outstanding overdue fines by donating non-perishable food in lieu of money.

Why are we running "Food for Fines"?

Because it is a nice thing to do! It is an opportunity for library customers and staff to support local families during the festive season. Customers have the opportunity to clear outstanding overdue fines and staff have the opportunity to clear outstanding books and charges from the Library Management System.

Donated food must be non-perishable, packaging intact and with use by date of March 2014 or later. There is no limit to the amount in overdue fines you can pay off with food, but food donations will only be used to clear overdue fines. Payment for lost and damaged items or other charges such as reservations must be paid with cash.

To be in the spirit of this program we recommend that food donated should roughly equate to the amount of overdue fines due.

People from the community are welcome to take part. They do not necessarily have to accrue overdue fines to donate food items.

The Food for Fines initiative will run from Monday 4 November to 20 December 2013 at Culcairn, Henty and Holbrook Libraries.

Hello Wrap with Love Volunteers

We wish our wonderful Wrappers around Australia all the best for Christmas and the New Year. This has been another busy year for us, and 30,440 Wraps have been dispatched so far. Thank you!

Wraps for Africa

World Vision reports: "It was all smiles on 2 August when 142 mothers from local hospitals in Malawi were spoiled with hand-knitted blankets for their newborn babies. World Vision's Gifts-in-Kind program distributed colourful blankets knitted by Australian volunteers from Wrap With Love. Their generous contribution kept over 100 newborn babies warm including seven premature infants in special care. Mrs Chizimba, who is responsible for the maternity wing at Nkhoma Hospital, described the blankets as one of the best gifts they have received for mothers and their babies." You can view the full report from World Vision on our website www.artsandcraftsnsw.com.au/Wrap

Wraps for Mongolia

Barry Jiggins from Cairns, through his organisation MongoliAid, has delivered 31,000 blankets to Mongolia over the past ten years, nearly half of them from Wrap with Love. Forty remote villages across 7 provinces received blankets from MongoliAid in 2013. Barry has now decided to supply another 20,000 over the next three years, with the aim of covering the whole of Mongolia and we will be supporting him. What an inspiration!

Summer Reading Clubs for all ages

We all know about the Summer Reading Club for primary school kids, but why should they be the ones to have all the fun? This year, Riverina Regional Library will be extending the Summer Reading Club for all ages. There will be two booklets full of summer reading suggestions in different genres. For youth we are calling it I'm With the Banned and banned books will be one of the genres featured. Relaxing Summer Reads is the name of the adult's club. Each time you borrow go in the draw to win a great prize at the end of the summer holidays. Contact the Henty Library staff for further details about the Summer Reading Club.
